Dietaries:

We pride ourselves on being able to curate menus that will suit a range of dietary requirements.

However, while we make every effort to meet your guest's dietary requirements and minimise cross-contamination, your menu is prepared in our kitchen which also produces items containing common allergens including (but not limited to) dairy, gluten & nuts. Therefore, we cannot ensure our food contains zero traces of these ingredients or cater for severe allergies.

All of our meat is suitable for Halal requirements (aside from pork product).
